

I am writing in support of my K-Love radio station. I want K-Love to continue broadcasting. This station is a source of great encouragement and support for the THOUSANDS of people who listen to it every day. As our society grows more withdrawn from personal contact, it is important to have stations like K-Love who send a message that people are important and that they matter. K-Love provides a service of encouraging people that few stations today provide.